TASTING NOTE

An aromatic, exciting nose with bold, lifted red berry fruits alongside savoury spice and baked brioche. Tart baked rhubarb and crunchy, juicy cranberry on the palate. A lovely approachable style, offering excellent maturity and depth of flavour. Great concentration with fresh acid and lovely lees texture. A rich, complex rosé. Long, clean finish.

VITICULTURE

Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier hand-picked from a single vineyard in Hampshire. 2015 began frost-free. A late budburst was followed by a cool summer, which slowed ripening until September. An Indian Summer raised temperatures, balanced grapes and resulted in exceptional quality. 2015 was a tense year, waiting for ripening and resulting wines.

FOOD MATCHING

A gastronomic gem! Enjoy solo or elevate with cured hams, lardo-wrapped asparagus, roast duck leg. Pairing perfection with mature cheeses and roast Turbot.
