TASTING NOTE

A pale, dry and delicate French rosé from the Languedoc region. It offers bright aromas of red berries, including strawberry and raspberry, paired with subtle Mediterranean herbs. Crisp, unoaked and light-bodied, it is highly refreshing and perfect as an aperitif.

VINEYARD

Like no other country, France offers an extraordinary diversity of terroirs, creating a rich and varied wine landscape that can be enjoyed by all.

VITICULTURE

France is one of the world's leading wine-growing nations and the heart of its viticultural heritage is the concept of terroir, which originated there. Terroir describes how a grape variety expresses flavour, aroma, and colour, shaped by soil, climate, winegrowing practices and the skill of the vintner.
