TASTING NOTE

From one of California's Grand Cru vineyards, it starts with the intense aromas of rich blackberry, blackcurrant and pepper aromas, the palate has striking power and breadth. This leads to a sweep of dark fruit flavours of blackberry, plum, blackcurrant The fine tannins and outstanding balance of power create a wine of poise and elegance.

VITICULTURE

Crafted entirely from Zinfandel vines planted in 1893 in the revered Monte Rosso Vineyard, named for its iron-rich, red volcanic soils. Though yields are small, the old gnarly vines produce exceptional fruit with deep concentration.

FOOD MATCHING

This powerful wine is right at home with rich, intense meat dishes—beef, lamb, and venison, in particular—where its opulent fruit and elegant tannins can be the hero of the show.
