TASTING NOTE

Rich, complex Amarone, many-layered yet instantly likeable, with long-lasting notes of dried fruit, tobacco and hints of vanilla.

VITICULTURE

Grapes grow in vineyards high in the hilll of Negrar on predominantly limestone and skeletal soil, which lowers yields but improves quality. A milder climate, with high temperature variation, influences the ripening of the fruit and ensures aromas are retained.

FOOD MATCHING

Heavy and flavourful enough to hold its own against a variety of game stews and roasted red meets. Also pairs excellently with long-seasoned cheeses.
