TASTING NOTE

The aroma is dominated by notes of citrus fruits, fresh lemon, white-fleshed peach and exotic fruits, surrounded by distinct mineral nuances. In the mouth, the acidity is sharp and precise, with a salty finish and a long lasting after taste with hints of wet stones and lemon peel.

VITICULTURE

The winery is located in Aigialeia in the northern Peloponnese of Greece, where vineyards are planted at high elevations on the slopes of the mountains and benefit from the cool influence of the nearby Corinthian Gulf, while the sandy-clay soils and steep terrain encourage slow grape ripening and good acidity.

FOOD MATCHING

Ideal with white fish carpaccio, fresh oysters and ceviche. It can also accompany dishes that showcase the acidity and the saltiness of the wine, like chicken with lemon and feta with oregano and olive oil.
