TASTING NOTE

Savoury nose. Toasted flavours of walnuts and rye sourdough and tamari. A really umami wine with the salty, sharp tang of umeboshi (fermented) plums. Rustic tannins and a firm, full finish.

VITICULTURE

The Altitude vineyard, rooted in clay and limestone soils, produces grapes that give this wine its distinctive character. The estate is currently in the process of converting to organic certification, reflecting its commitment to sustainable viticulture.

VINIFICATION

Traditionally vinified and then aged in concrete vats for 6 months.

FOOD MATCHING

For sophistication pair with blanquette de veau or for a more casual meal try veggie burritos.
