TASTING NOTE

Elegant and contemporary, with a fine, persistent mousse and a luminous pale-gold hue. The nose reveals delicate notes of white blossom, crisp green apple, lemon zest and ripe pear, lifted by subtle hints of brioche and toasted almond. On the palate, it is precise and beautifully balanced, combining vibrant citrus freshness with a refined creamy texture and a subtle mineral edge. The finish is long, clean and sophisticated, leaving a lingering impression of freshness and finesse.

VITICULTURE

Chardonnay vines thrive in Franciacorta's temperate climate, benefiting from warm days, cool nights and glacial soils. Careful vineyard management and selective harvesting preserve natural acidity, aromatic purity and the grapes' elegant mineral character.

VINIFICATION

Gentle pressing and temperature-controlled fermentation preserve the fruit's purity. Extended lees ageing in bottle develops fine bubbles, subtle brioche notes and a refined, mineral-driven finish.
