TASTING NOTE

Bright raspberries, cranberries, pink peppercorns and brambly wild berries on the nose mixed with baking spices. Juicy blackberry, raspberry jam and dark fruits on the palate, layered with pipe tobacco, cedar, clove and cracked pepper. Balanced structure with moderate, silky tannins and a long, lingering touch of toasty American oak to finish.

VITICULTURE

Aged in 2 year old American oak barrels for 14 months.

VINIFICATION

Sourced from vineyards in Lodi and Amador County. Harvested from 40-80 year old vines.

FOOD MATCHING

Would partner venison well along with other more gamey dishes.
