TASTING NOTE

Made from 100% Merlot, Brancaia's Maremma Rosé has a bright salmon colour and is fresh, fruity and elegant, with fragrant aromas of watermelon and jasmine tea. Grapes are picked earlier than for red wine, to keep the alcohol light and the acidity fresh and vibrant. Fermented at a low temperature with site-specific yeasts in stainless steel, without skin contact, and lees-aged for three months before bottling.

VINEYARD

All grapes come from our vineyards in the Maremma. Soil is sandy loamy, with two-thirds sand and one-third silt and clay.

VITICULTURE

We harvest the Merlot grapes a little earlier, so the alcohol and structure remain light and have a bright salmon pink color. Handpicking only.

FOOD MATCHING

Ideal with: aperitifs, salads, shellfish, seafood and poultry. Our favorite: with raw ham with fresh figs.
