TASTING NOTE

Pale salmon pink with delicate aromas of white peach, fresh strawberries, watermelon and citrus, complemented by subtle floral notes. The palate is fresh, elegant and beautifully balanced, with lively acidity, gentle fruit concentration and a crisp, refreshing finish. A charming, dry rosé with lovely finesse.

VITICULTURE

Produced from organically cultivated vineyards in Maremma, Tuscany, at 75-175 metres above sea level. West and south-west-facing slopes benefit from a Mediterranean climate and cooling sea breezes. Sandy-loam soils, comprising sand, silt and clay, provide excellent drainage. Merlot grapes are harvested early by hand to preserve freshness, acidity.

FOOD MATCHING

Pairs well with light meals such as salads, crustaceans, seafood and poultry.
