TASTING NOTE

Utterly succulent and elegant, this offers appealingly complex aromas of fresh cherries, roasted chestnuts, seasoned oak and autumnal forest walks. On the palate, the tannins are fabulously silky, and the wine evokes a sense of gentle ripeness, while remaining precise and focused.

VINEYARD

Undoubtedly Barolo's most famous vineyard. The soil composition and the vineyard's perfect southern exposure give the grapes grown here an extraordinary uniqueness. Here, both Tortonian and Helvetian soils blend seamlessly, along with a significant percentage of sand.

FOOD MATCHING

Medallions of venison with port and cranberries; lamb chops with minted potatoes and zucchini or grilled sirloin steak with anise basil butter.
