Oublié 2021

RED STILL WINE | UNITED STATES OF AMERICA | CALIFORNIA | SUITABLE FOR VEGETARIANS

TASTING NOTE

Oublié is a blend of Grenache, Syrah, and Mourvèdre—our California take on a Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Its name nods to the "forgotten" Rhône varietals that thrive on our estate. The 2020 vintage shows vibrant acidity and perfect balance, with aromas of cherries and blueberries. A true crowd-pleaser, perfect for relaxing or sharing.

VITICULTURE

Sustainably farmed by hand on our thin calcareous soils in the Willow Creek District of Paso Robles, California.

FOOD MATCHING

Pairs beautifully with a wide array of dishes—from classic ratatouille or wild mushroom risotto, to rosemary-encrusted lamb chops and smoked pork loin—making it a versatile companion at the table.
