TASTING NOTE

Many-layered Shiraz from South Australia, wafting blossom and black pepper into the nose, mulberry, rhubarb and plum into the mouth, followed by a lasting hit of aniseed, liquorice and spice.

VINIFICATION

Crafted from low-yielding, highly concentrated old-vine fruit, the small grape batches are fermented in five-tonne headed-down open fermenters, foot-trodden two-thirds of the way through the process, and basket-pressed into a mix of new and used French oak barriques where the wine matures on its lees for 18 months without racking, fining, or filtration.

FOOD MATCHING

Red meat such as beef roast or rib-eye.
