Pale and pretty crystal clear pink. Strawberries and red berries aromas with orange zest notes. Lively with fresh acidity and fruity palate.

Vineyards of the Uco Valley at the foot of the Andes at 1200 m.a.s.l. The low temperatures in the valley allow optimal development of the grapes, managing to develop its quality to the maximum.

VINIFICATION

The grapes are harvested during the last week of January until the beginning of April. Fermentation with selected yeasts at an average temperature of 26°C for 10 days.

FOOD MATCHING

Pairs well with appetisers as well as chicken and pasta dishes.
