TASTING NOTE

Fontanafredda's Barolo is fabulously rich and velvety, with wonderful, frosted rosehip and autumnal character. Full-bodied and sumptuous with suave tannins and excellent balance, it opens up to show foresty nuances, and hints of roasted chestnuts, beeswax polish and a swell of delicious fruit that builds on the finish.

VITICULTURE

Growing locations: villages south of Alba. Vineyard features: Located mid- and high-hillside (300-400 m a.s.l) with various exposures (except for the north), they are planted on soil of Miocene-Helvetian and Tortonian origin, which is characteristically packed with limestone and marl.

FOOD MATCHING

Ideal with rich red meats and with medium or mature cheeses it is perfect as an after dinner wine.
