TASTING NOTE

Golden in colour, the aromas are reminiscent of white fruit and camomile flowers. The ageing notes are very evident and show brioche, breadcrumbs and dried apricots. It is a fully gastronomic wine, structured, with a vibrant freshness and a roundness full of character.

VINEYARD

In the surroundings of Celler Batlle, the Font de Jui estate groups together plots of the three varieties used to make this wine. The soil is clayey, with a slightly cemented calcareous presence. We work this estate, like all our lands, following the biodynamic philosophy. The vivification of the soils is already a reality and the autonomy of the vines is increasing day by day.

VINIFICATION

Lustros is 100% handcrafted. We use natural cork stoppers, which favours the longest ageing periods. We use riddling desks, and the stirring and disgorging are carried out by hand. It is a brut nature.
