TASTING NOTE

A floral nose of lilac, rose petal, and violet leads to ripe yet fresh, spicy aromas of cassis and black cherry liqueur. The elegant, mediumbodied palate shows strong minerality with bitter pit fruit notes and a youthfully austere finish. This firm, built-to-age wine is lovely and well worth your attention.

VITICULTURE

At the southern end of Beaune, beside Pommard, the Drouhin vineyard lies mid-slope with an east/southeast exposure. It forms the largest part of Clos des Mouches (14 ha), half Chardonnay and half Pinot Noir. The claylimestone soil, lighter and rockier uphill, lends great finesse. Domaine area: 6.82 ha; vines average 45 years old.

FOOD MATCHING

Shellfish, seafood, salads are all well matched with this complex and elegant wine.
