TASTING NOTE

Delicious Puligny-Montrachet, juicy with white peaches and nectarines, underlaid with dried fruit and supplemented by a fragrance of almonds and flowers.

VITICULTURE

Located in the heart of the Côte de Beaune, Puligny-Montrachet is one of the famed Côte des Blancs appellations. Vines are Guyot-pruned at a density of 10,000 per hectare, with yields kept low at 51 hl/ha to enhance quality. The limestone soils, mixed with ochre earth and small pebbles, reveal the terroir's full finesse.

FOOD MATCHING

An interesting and refined match for crab or smoked duck. Pasta or legumes proivide an textural element to enjoy.
