TASTING NOTE

Elegant, approachable and fruit-forward, this wine delights with bright aromas of ripe cherry, raspberry and subtle spice, culminating in a silky, well-rounded finish.

VINEYARD

Like an amphitheater facing the Mediterranean, the Languedoc-Roussillon region stretches along 200 km of coastline, between the sea and the mountains. Its terroir is shaped by clay-limestone soils, sandstone, and schist, which benefit from a sunny climate ideal for many grape varieties to flourish, producing rich and authentic wines.
