TASTING NOTE

Captivating aromas of black cherries, new oak, coffee, woodsmoke, and butter. The first sip reveals intense roundness, velvety texture, and seamlessly integrated oak. Full-bodied, succulent, and refined with a lasting impression. Enjoyable now, with potential to thrive for another seven years.

VITICULTURE

Grapes for this wine were handpicked from several premium Napa Valley vineyards, including William Hill (27%), Sun Lake (22%), Cypress Ranch (18%), Sage Canyon (10%) and the highly-prized Stagecoach (6%). The remainder came from other selected growers.

VINIFICATION

Classic destemming, 48-hour cold soak for rich cabernet extraction. Daily pump-overs, selective delestage for Petite Sirah & Petit Verdot. Evaluated individually, aged 16 months in French/American oak (40% new), medium to heavy toast. Unveiling pure, harmonious flavors

FOOD MATCHING

A great match for roasted red meats, flame-grilled steak or casseroles.
