TASTING NOTE

Aloxe-Corton in the northern end of the Côte de Beaune is one of the legendary names of Burgundy and this silky, opulent wine has the signature red fruit and farmyard flavours, like strawberries with the earth still on them.

VITICULTURE

North east of Beaune can be found,  Aloxe Corton has exposure to the east, south and west. All of which are excellent. The elevation ranges from 255 to 350m a.s.l. It is known equally for both its white and red wines. The soils consist of a mixture of limestone marlstone and sandy limestone.

FOOD MATCHING

Pan-seared venison with rosemary and dried cherries or provencal lamb with Mediterranean vegetables.
