TASTING NOTE

With its unique personality, this wine depicts the characteristics of the grape variety. On the nose, a delicious background of ripe fruit with almond, mineral and luscious notes. Well-structured palate, elegant and harmonious. A very fresh and enjoyable wine with pleasant acidity on the finish.

VINIFICATION

The grapes, harvested at night in an impeccable state of health, have been subjected to a cooling process before proceeding to a selection of musts by gentle pressing. Fermentation with its fine lees is carried out at controlled temperatures of between 15 and 17°. The wine is then kept on its fine lees until stabilization and final bottling.

FOOD MATCHING

Fish, vegetables, pasta, salads, tapas. Great by the glass.
