Rolling Stone 2019

RED STILL WINE | AUSTRALIA | MARGARET RIVER | SUITABLE FOR VEGANS

TASTING NOTE

The nose opens with fragrant violets, cassis, dark cherry and warm earth, layered with savoury notes of black olive, bay leaf and dark chocolate. The palate is powerful, yet elegant and refined, with a dense core of blackberries, gravel dust and cedar spice. Firm but fine tannins provide impressive length and structure.

VITICULTURE

Situated in Forest Grove, this southern Margaret River site features free-draining ironstone gravel soils, a cooling maritime influence, and a north-facing aspect for optimal sun exposure. Sustainable farming has revitalised the soils, allowing us to craft wines of exceptional texture, vibrancy, and true site expression.
