TASTING NOTE

A wine with masses of character: deep, musky notes intertwine with black truffle, toasted oak, roast chestnut and mushroom. It has a succulent, rounded and mellow texture, with mature tannin and lovely balance. The signature red variety of the Lazio region, Cesanese is noted for ripening extremely late in the season, and requires careful handling. Despite being very traditional for the area, a wine made from 100% Cesanese cannot be labelled as Roma DOC, so this is a Lazio IGP.

VITICULTURE
