TASTING NOTE

This has really fine, delicate, spiced aromas, with beautifully-integrated oak notes adorning a wealth of intense yet subtle fruit character. It's incredibly supple and silky, with mouthfilling, super-soft tannins. Utterly wonderful, with truffle, foresty complex nuances emerging with time in the glass.

VINEYARD

The terraces of the El Anejón plot welcome the Carraovejas valley. Its uneven relief makes it a natural amphitheater in front of the privileged views of the castle of Peñafiel. It is one of the first terraced plots in Ribera del Duero and one of the few examples of terraced vineyards in the entire appellation. The soil of its terraces has a very compact and austere limestone-loam texture.
