TASTING NOTE

Highest parcels in Ribera del Duero. 100 years old vines. Bold, with with defined character. Designed to evolve over time. Its freshness and intense mouthfeel are representative of a modern style, moving away from excess, in search of the elegance, smoothness and balance found in the great wines of the world.

VINIFICATION

Clusters are selectively hand-harvested, and two more selections are made in the winery: first of clusters, then individual berries within the bunch. The fruit of each plot is vinified separately, in small wooden vats, concrete and stainless steel tanks and amphorae. The wine ages 18 months in French oak barrels and foudres, and 12 months in the bottle.

FOOD MATCHING

Ribera del Duero is prime territory for Roasted lamb, sheeps cheese or mushrooms; thistle mushrooms, colmenilla mushrooms, portobellos.
