TASTING NOTE

Planeta is a Sicilian powerhouse and this, from their Menfi vineyards, is floral and fresh, perfumed with peach, papaya and yellow melon yet restrained by a shot of chamomile.

VITICULTURE

La Segreta takes its name from the woods around Planeta's Ulmo vineyard. This young, fresh wine is made mainly from Grecanico grapes, gaining personality and style from selected international varieties. The grapes are carefully grown in Planeta-owned vineyards at 45–100 metres above sea level, with vines trained by cordon spur and guyot.

VINIFICATION

Static decanting of must after destalking and soft pressing; ferments at 15^{0}C in stainless steel vats, remaining there until bottling.

FOOD MATCHING

Excellent as aperitif and very versatile in matching with various appetisers, salads and pasta dishes with light or seafood sauces.
