TASTING NOTE

Intense aromas of citrus and tropical fruit plus a delicate hint of orange blossom, followed by a vibrant, energising lemon acidity.

VITICULTURE

This wine is named after Douro Superior (Upper Douro), where the grapes are grown at Quinta da Cabreira. The estate has 114 hectares of vineyards planted on schist and granite soils using hillside rows and terrace systems. Facing east and north, the vines are around 18 years old, producing fruit that reflects the region's unique terroir.

FOOD MATCHING

Try with roast venison, or with a hard goats cheese. Excellent with roast chicken or fish pie
