TASTING NOTE

Rock Angel is rich and racy on the palate. The use of partial oak ageing adds a creamy feel and texture to this wine, and the flinty minerality imbues it with another layer of complexity.

VITICULTURE

"Optical eye" sorting of grapes at harvest, partial barrel fermentation and six months on lees (with stirring) before bottling.

VINIFICATION

Rock Angel Rosé is a full-bodied, complex, and rich wine with flavors of roses, strawberry, raspberry, and nectarine. It's made from Grenache, Cinsault, and Vermentino grapes, which are hand-harvested in the early mornings to preserve their flavors and aromas.
