TASTING NOTE

Michael Seresin's organic Reserve Chardonnay exudes poise. Concentrated yet restrained aromas of ripe pear, golden apple, tart greengage, and subtle oak. Palate offers richness, complexity, and savory notes, complemented by firm acidity and mineral essence. Enjoyable now, but aging potential ensures graceful evolution.

VITICULTURE

Certified organic fruit was hand-picked from the rich, clay-based slopes of Seresin Estates biodynamically certified Raupo Creek vineyard in the Southern Valley.

FOOD MATCHING

This rich, complex wine complements savory, oak, or yellow fruit flavors. Enjoy with dishes like seafood chowder, roast chicken, or porcini mushroom risotto. It's perfect for autumn fruit crumbles and aged cheese too
