TASTING NOTE

The Albert is a quintessential 'new wave' Barossa Valley Shiraz - finesse and balance a hallmark. A fragrant, medium weight red with boysenberry and fresh plum flavours tempered by spice. Fine-grained tannin and a subtle meatiness complete an elegant, fine-boned picture. Campbell Mattinson -James Halliday Wine Companion Published 01 August 2020

VITICULTURE

Sourced from two prized vineyard sites; a 75 year old vineyard in Ebenezer in the Northen Barossa, the other a 70 year old vineyard in Williamstown, in the Southern-most extremity of the Valley.

FOOD MATCHING

Venison or Lamb cutlets but equally suited served with a selection of fine hard cheeses would be ideal for this rich wine.
