TASTING NOTE

Lifted aromas of berry fruits, dark cherry, five spice and deep cacao chocolate combine seamlessly with a sweet fruit palate that showcases all the elements present on the nose. The bright fruit acidity drives freshness on the palate where the fine 'old vine' tannins gently resolve with a subtle savoury earthiness and complexity.

VITICULTURE

Sourced from a network of vineyards located throughout the Barossa Valley, from vines up to 100 years, grown on a range of soil types. The younger blocks are planted utilising modern trellis systems, while the oldest Grenache and Mataro vineyards are dry grown bush vines.

FOOD MATCHING

Versatile and exuberant, the Joshua pairs well with charcuterie and carpaccio dishes whilst it also sits well with asian inspired spice dishes.
