VITICULTURE

The Trimbach family's winemaking dates back to 1626 with Jean Trimbach in Riquewihr. Their vineyards around Ribeauvillé benefit from the Vosges' protective microclimate and the Ribeauvillé fault line's diverse soils, including limestone and fossilized seashells. Trimbach Réserves come from old vines, producing complex wines with great ageing potential.

FOOD MATCHING

The selection of very ripe grapes allows this Pinot Gris Réserve to match wonderfully with exotic, Asiatic and Japanese food. It really comes into its own with terrines, foie gras, smoked fish, fish in sauce (notably salmon) and white meats.
