VITICULTURE

The modern-day Maison of Veuve Clicquot boasts exceptional champagne vineyards spanning 390 hectares across 12 Grands Crus and 20 Premiers Crus, representing Champagne's essence. Cool climate, chalky soil, and natural vine resilience ensure ideal conditions.

VINIFICATION

"Veuve Clicquot's Yellow Label is a benchmark for quality. Crafted through expert blending, it showcases their vineyard holdings and Madame Clicquot's legacy. Dominant Pinot Noir provides structure, a touch of Pinot Meunier adds roundness, and Chardonnay lends elegance. The perfect balance is achieved in this iconic Champagne."

FOOD MATCHING

An excellent aperitif wine because of its finesse, freshness and length. Full-bodied, it goes well with freshwater fish and delicate sea fish.
