TASTING NOTE

With masses of character, Lot 4 is the quintessential Leyda Valley Sauvignon Blanc. It expresses concentrated yet complex notes of tomato leaves, mangetout peas and grapefruit, with a suggestion of crushed pumice and linseed oil. On the palate, it has crystalline definition, nervy vibrancy and creamy texture, cut through with mouthwatering acidity. It is admirably frank - bone dry, with raw personality and a vivid sense of place.

VINIFICATION

Selected from specific blocks in the El Maitén vineyard, which are planted to the Sancerre 317 clone of Sauvignon Blanc. Fermented and aged mostly in stainless steel with added complexity from foudre, concrete egg and 400-litre French oak barrels.
