TASTING NOTE

This distinctive Gran Reserva is cellared for more than a decade before release, and builds bold notes of espresso, bitter chocolate, peppery spice, Cuban cigars and hot tar on a foundation of concentrated plum fruit and deep, velvety tannins. A wine defined by structure and complexity, it warrants savouring slowly, to allow its magnificent, subtle nuances to unfold. While intense, it is supremely balanced and polished, with lingering flavours.

A rolling 25 hectares (61.74 acres). with an altitude: 600 ms. (1970 ft.), taking in the stunning panorama of the surrounding hills and valleys. The vineyard soils are composed of franciscan clay.
