TASTING NOTE

Moreish, lively German Riesling, the nose a blend of spice and pineapple, the mouth a vibrant bowlful of tangerine and grapefruit.

VITICULTURE

The vineyard is located in the middle of Rheingau with and average age of 20 years. The vines are trellised with the Guyot sytem and the canopy management is Leitz's own structure. Sustainable farming practice is employed including leaf removal.

VINIFICATION

Whole cluster pressing, overnight settling on skins and then temperature controlled fermentation in stainless steel. The wines is left on lees for 4 months and filtered via cross flow.

FOOD MATCHING

Brilliant as an aperitif with oysters, delicious with Sashimi as well as richer, oily fish.
