TASTING NOTE

Juicy, alluring Condrieu, perfumed with pineapple, hay and herbs and flavoured with bananas and cream, all held in check by lively acidity.

VITICULTURE

The vineyards, planted on south/southeastfacing terraces overlooking Chavanay, rest on muscovite-rich granite soils. "La Petite Côte" is a cuvée name, not a district. Vines are densely planted (8,000–10,000/ha), farmed without insecticides or pesticides, using minimal organic fertiliser, with strict yield control and green harvesting for ideal ripeness.

FOOD MATCHING

Roast loin of pork with apple-onion chutney, coconut-lime fish with peanut sauce or boiled lobsters with tarragon butter make for a palate pleasing combination.
