TASTING NOTE

Juicy, alluring Condrieu, perfumed with pineapple, hay and herbs and flavoured with bananas and cream, all held in check by lively acidity.

VITICULTURE

La Petite Côte comes from south and southeast-facing terraced vineyards above Chavanay on muscovite-rich granite soils. High-density plantings encourage quality, while sustainable practices include no insecticides or pesticides, minimal treatments, organic fertiliser and careful canopy and yield management to optimise ripening.

FOOD MATCHING

Roast loin of pork with apple-onion chutney, coconut-lime fish with peanut sauce or boiled lobsters with tarragon butter make for a palate pleasing combination.
